

HEAVEN CAN WAIT NEWSLETTER – MAY 2011

As Heaven Can Wait moves forward, finally gaining traction with our "healing and learning" programs, expect to see many good changes over the coming months! This news bulletin is just one of many to come. While we reorganize how we distribute news to our many supporters, expect to receive email bulletins similar to this one at least monthly, most likely every two weeks. Soon we will be adding a newly designed newsletter, with regular columns contributed by many of our supporters about different aspects of Heaven Can Wait as well as general equine-rescue related topics. In the meantime, we are seeking a Volunteer Newsletter Editor to define monthly newsletter themes, work with the contributors, and oversee production and distribution.

As you may have heard by now, Ramey Zamora voluntarily ended her relationship with Heaven Can Wait. Contrary to the grapevine buzz, HCW is well and thriving. Unless you read about me in the newspaper's Obit Section, Heaven Can Wait is still going strong!

News from the Ranch

The 3 horses we rescued and mentioned in the April Newsletter, are all safe and happy in their new homes. Kalua is here. George is with very good friends of HCW, and Shadow is with a Board Member keeping a previous rescue company.

May 21st - Barn and Bounty Sale

A Barn and Bounty Sale to benefit Heaven Can Wait is scheduled for Saturday, May 21st, 2011 at Consignage Home & Garden, 1041 Paso Robles Street. Attached is a Flyer to provide you with additional information. Incidentally, we need volunteers to help with this event. Hopefully, there will be lots of good stuff and people will come pouring in to find many good deals.

The Volunteer Orientation held on April 23rd brought some really nice people to HCW. Hopefully, since I have a tendency to be a bit too passionate about what we do here, I did not scare any of the new volunteers away. My thanks to Gail Temple for her very professional presentation and interaction with the new volunteers. A special thanks for her patience when I added my 2 cents worth.

Open House – June 12

As you already know, our 5th Annual Open House is scheduled for Sunday, June 12th, with two changes: the Food Vendor is Chris's Smokehouse and music is provided by David Manion on the keyboard and Jack Morrow on the saxophone. The original group, the Mudskippers, had a conflicting commitment. But one of that groups members, Jack Morrow, drafted his friend, and we are having some great music! Also attached is an Open House Flyer for your information and, hopefully, distribution far and wide.

And don't forget about Chili's Night for Heaven Can Wait on June 28th. Attached is a sheet of 3 coupons. They do not need to be in color so can be printed from anyone's computer. Please distribute them to one and all.

I am making every attempt to keep the website as up to date as possible with regard to our programs and events. If you don't hear from me and have any questions, please use the website www.heavencanwait.us for answers or please feel free to call me at 805-368-5702. I will get back to you as soon as I can.

Thank you for all of your support, both past and future!
